MANAGEMENT
THE EXECUTIVES

Alan Quinn | CEO

As a CEO, Alan's responsibility lies in growing the business holistically, inspiring people to go further together, and to do right by all our stakeholders for the collective greater good.

Professionally qualified, Alan has been with Empact Group since the acquisition of Supercare Services Group by Compass Group in 2012 where he previously held the position of Chief Financial Officer. He has also gained extensive experience by being a business owner in the technology space.

Leading with heart and care, Alan is driven to contribute to the wellbeing of South African society and is a firm believer in purpose and the value of people in business.

Kuben Moodley | Director

As Managing Director, Kubendran is responsible for providing strategic direction across the food business – doing right by clients by partnering with them and continually ensuring operational excellence.

Salwa Albertyn | Director

Salwa's journey within Empact Group spans over 25-years. As Group Human Resources Executive, Salwa is responsible for driving consistency, policies in the business, culture & performance management across the group company.